Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1887.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

Editor: C. Park of Bethel has been named Justice of the Peace and Quorum.

The Farmers' Institute of Oxford County will occur at Norway Dec. 3.

Remember that wood is wanted and that we must either have the wood or the money.

If you are owing for the Advertiser remember we are always ready and ready to give you a receipt. In fact we rather insist on it.

For homes in Florida see ad. of E. G.

Hill in another column. Dr. C. D. Hill of Bethel, Me., will give general information.

We trust our correspondents will be prompt in sending in the local news.

Some of them are very prompt but others are so slow that we are obliged to write for them. To this latter class we would say that we would say with the compliments of the season "send along the local items."

We send out some sample copies of the Advertiser this week. It should be sent to the news in this section of the world we want to see the sample copy and we will be glad to send you a copy of the Advertiser if you will send us a copy of the Advertiser.

IN MEMORIAM.

WORTHY MASTER, BROTHERS AND SISTERS:

As we assemble here today, and rest upon our sacred charter, we are conscious of the fact that we are gathered here to mourn the loss of one of our most valued members.

Our departed brother, Mr. J. W.

Allen, died on Friday evening,

December 29th, at the age of thirty years.

He was a native of Maine, and was educated at the University of Maine.

He was a member of the Church of the Holy Trinity, and was a devoted member of the Order of the Good Will.

He was a man of high character, and was loved by all who knew him.

His death is a great loss to the Church and to the community.

His funeral will be held on Saturday morning, at the Church of the Holy Trinity.

Interment will be in the graveyard at Bethel.

His family consists of a wife and three children.
